

Professional Development Evaluation

Student: _____

Date: _____

Course: _____

Overall Score: _____

INSTRUCTIONS: Complete the evaluation by circling the appropriate response.

Affective Characteristics

1. The student is prompt to his/her assigned area.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

2. The student is professional in his/her appearance.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

3. The student displays enthusiasm, interest, and motivation necessary to complete his/her clinical objectives.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

4. The student is a self-starter; accepts responsibility; and seeks additional work.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

5. The student demonstrates behavior consistent with the ASRT's Code of Ethics.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

6. The student demonstrates an ability to handle pressure; remains calm and efficient during busy and/or crisis situations.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

Communication Skills

1. The student accurately comprehends written communications in the clinical environment including:

- Requisitions
- Medical records
- Departmental protocols
- Technique Charts

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

2. The student accurately conveys verbal instructions to his/her patients.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

3. The student is able to establish a rapport with his/her patient through appropriate communication skills – both verbal and non-verbal communication.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

4. The student has the ability to communicate, interact, and deal effectively with supervisors, peers, and others in the health care environment.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

Performance Characteristics

1.	The student demonstrates comprehensive knowledge of imaging concepts to produce quality radiographs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Technique selection ➤ Film/screen selection 	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
2.	The student consistently plans and completes radiographic procedures in a logical sequence.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
3.	The student performs patient care skills necessary to meet the needs of his/her patients. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Patient comfort ➤ Patient safety 	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
4.	The student demonstrates proficiency in positioning patients for routine procedures.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
5.	The student demonstrates proficiency in positioning patients for trauma and portable procedures.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
6.	The student demonstrates proficiency with operating room procedures.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
7.	The student performs processing tasks properly including darkroom, daylight processors, etc.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
8.	The student demonstrates proper use of the PACS system.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
9.	The student operates radiographic equipment safely, accurately and efficiently. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Radiographic & fluoroscopic 	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
10.	The student operates portable radiographic equipment safely, accurately and efficiently.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
11.	The student operates radiographic equipment in the surgical suite safely, accurately, and efficiently.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA
12.	The student practices Standard Precautions.	Always	Most of the time	Occasionally	Never	NA

13. The student practices methods of radiation protection.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

14. The student practices proper body mechanics when lifting patients, moving equipment, etc.

Always Most of the time Occasionally Never NA

Comments: _____

Technologist's Signature: _____

Date: _____

Student's Signature: _____

Date: _____

Affective Characteristics Score	Communication Skills Score	Performance Characteristics Score